of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Trustee or Officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Community.

- (c) No modification or repeal of any provision of this Article shall affect, to the detriment of the Trustee or Officer, the obligation of the Community College to indemnify or to advance expenses to a Trustee or Officer in connection with a claim based on any act or failure to act occurring before such modification or repeal.
- (d) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which a person indemnified may be entitled under any agreement, vote of Trustees or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity, while holding such office, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of any such person.
- (e) The Board of Trustees shall have the power to (i) authorize the Community College to purchase and maintain, at the Community College's expense, insurance on behalf of the Community College and others to the extent that the power to do so has not been prohibited by applicable law and (ii) create any fund of any nature, whether under the control of a Trustee or otherwise, to secure any of its indemnification to the extent not prohibited by statute.

VII. CODE OF ETHICS AND CONDUCT

Each Trustee shall be required to acknowledge and uphold the Code of Ethics and Conduct (Adopted by the Board of Trustees on Aug. 12, 2008) upon appointment to the Board of Trustees. In the event any Trustee violates the Code of Ethics and Conduct, ~~they~~ shall be notified by the Chairperson of each such violation, and the breaching Trustee shall have the opportunity to respond to the Board of Trustees or Chairperson. The Chairperson shall have the right to officially, and on record, censor and reprimand the breaching Trustee. In the event a majority of the Board of Trustees determines in good faith based upon reasonable grounds that the breaching Trustee should be removed from the Board of Trustees, it shall be the duty of the Chairperson to notify and recommend to the then applicable governing body of Luzerne County such specific action. In the event the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees is the violator, the Vice Chairperson of the Board of Trustees will assume the responsibilities of Chairperson mentioned above. Each Trustee, upon assuming the office, is required to adhere to the highest level of personal ethics and professional conduct and to avoid any issues or make any decisions which may be considered as a conflict of interest.

VIII. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

1. Meetings

Deleted: 887816.54¶

- a. The regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be no fewer than six in number, with each convening at a date, time, and place to be determined by the Chairperson. All meetings at which official action is taken shall be open to the general public. The Board of Trustees may meet in Executive Session on matters related to personnel issues, legal issues, or any other purposes as prescribed by Pennsylvania law. Executive Sessions may not be open to the general public.
- b. Special Meetings shall be held at the request of the Chairperson or on written request by the majority of the Board of Trustees.
- c. The Board of Trustees shall be governed in its meetings by Parliamentary Procedure and according to Robert's Rules of Order.
- d. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, if a meeting (whether it be the annual meeting, a regularly scheduled meeting or a special meeting) of the Board of Trustees or Committee is held by means of the internet or other electronic communications technology in a fashion pursuant to which the Trustees have the opportunity to read or hear the proceedings substantially concurrently with their occurrence, vote on matters submitted to the Trustees, post questions to the officers and other Trustees, make appropriate motions and comment on the business of the meeting, then the meeting need not be held at a particular geographic location.

2. Quorum of the Board

A majority of the members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the case of a lack of quorum, the Secretary shall call the roll, record the names of absentees, and adjourn. The presence or participation, including voting and taking other action, at a meeting of the Board of Trustees (or any Committee authorized to vote) or the expression of consent or dissent to a corporate action by a Trustee by conference telephone or other electronic means, including, without limitation, the internet, shall constitute the presence of, or vote or action by, or consent or dissent of the Trustee for purposes of these Bylaws.

X. MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLE

Interpretation: It is intended that the provision of these by-laws be reasonably and liberally construed to effectuate the mission, purposes, goals and objectives of the Community College. The provisions of these by-laws shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision is declared contrarily to the laws of any party, the constitutionality of the remainder of these by-laws shall not be affected thereby.

Amendments: These by-laws may be altered, amended or added to, or repealed by the Community College's Board of Trustees, provided that written notice for the proposed alteration, amendments, addition or repeal shall be presented to the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, who should include the above mentioned notice to the Board of Trustees for discussion, approval or rejection. These By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed, or new By-Laws may be adopted by vote of the Trustees at any regular or special meeting of Trustees duly convened after 30 days' notice, by vote of a majority of the Trustees. Any change in these By-Laws shall take effect when adopted unless otherwise provided in the resolution effecting the change.

Fiscal Years: The Community College's fiscal year shall begin on the first day of July and terminate on the thirtieth (30) day of June of the following year.

Deleted: Conference and Telephonic Communication:
Members of the Board of Trustees may participate in any meeting of the Trustees by means of conference telephone or similar communication if all persons participating in such meeting can hear one another for the entire discussion of the matter(s) to be voted upon. Participating in a meeting pursuant to this Section shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.¶
