POLL

Which of the following should an institution focus on first?

STEP #1

UNDERSTAND THE FIVE "P'S"

- Policy
- Process
- People
- Professional Development
- Programming

STEP #2

UNDERSTAND THE RISKS FOR NON-COMPLIANCE

- Potential loss of federal funding
- Potential for review/investigation by OCR
- Potential for negative institutional publicity
- Potential for lawsuit

STEP #3

UNDERSTAND POTENTIAL LEGAL INTERSECTIONS

- Constitutional protections (due process, first amendment)
- VAWA/Campus SaVE Act/Clery Act
- ADA/Section 504
- FERPA
- Title IV
- Title VII
- EDGAR Part 86 (DFSCA)

STEP #4

GAIN AN UNDERSTANDING OF YOUR INSTITUTIONAL NEEDS

- Know that each institution is unique; Title IX issues on one campus may be different from issues on another campus
- Consult with cross campus constituencies (Advisory Group)
- Campus climate check
- Institutional capacity (financial, human resource, etc.)
- Previous internal/external audits- were findings/issues addressed? why or why not?

31

STEP #5

DEVELOP AN INSTITUTIONAL PLAN AND WORK TOWARDS A GOAL- STARTING FROM THE TOP

- Train Executive Leadership and Boards on Title IX (high level training)
- Develop an institutional “philosophy” (regarding sex/gender based discrimination)
- Develop policies and procedures that supports that philosophy
- Designate appropriate institutional resources

STEP #5 (continued)

DEVELOP AN INSTITUTIONAL PLAN AND WORK TOWARDS A GOAL- STARTING FROM THE TOP

- Support the professional development and ongoing campus-wide awareness and programming
- Identify necessary support resources (on campus and within the community)
- Get regular updates; stay in the know
- Do what's right for the right reasons
